COUNTY NEWS IN REVIEW

Gambling Fiasco—

Sheriff James J. McGrath disclosed today that he and Constable George Krehl visited the Bayshore City Oriental "Social" club again Wednesday night but found no evidence of gambling. No games of any description were in progress, the sheriff reported, and only a dozen persons were in the place.

Fiesta Check-Up—

Declaring himself "definitely not satisfied" with the certified report of the County Fair association covering operation of the 1939 fiesta and rodeo, Foreman Ray T. Higgins announced last week that the county grand jury's accountants would examine the fiesta books, and that the inquisitorial body later would call a meeting with directors of the association to discuss the "general policy of the fiesta."

The grand jury will seek the information for the purpose of determining whether the county is justified in continuing its annual $10,000 subsidy to the fiesta, according to Higgins. He pointed out that the fiesta has not operated as a financial success in spite of the county subsidy and state financial aid.

Dog-Poisoner—

Hillsborough police were investigating another dog poisoning today, one of a series which has mothers of small children in the San Mateo-Burlingame-Hillsborough area worried for fear that their children might accidentally pick up and eat some of the poison "bait."

Deaths of several dogs by the use of strychnine poison have been reported in the area.

Skyline's Future—

Plans for beautifying the Skyline Boulevard roadway along its entire 78-mile length between San Francisco and Santa Cruz were outlined last week as Phillip D. Holle, Burlingame, started his duties as director of California's newest highway improvement association.

Holle, an official of Californians Inc., was loaned to the sponsors of the Skyline project by his organization in the anticipation that he would successfully direct the program to add another scenic gem to California's already beautiful highway system.

Police Report

There were only two traffic fatalities in Daly City during 1939, two in 1938 and four in 1937, according to a report issued today from the Daly City police department.

These figures compare favorably with statistics of 1936, when there were eleven local traffic fatalities, and show a decrease of more than eighty per cent.

Accidents in Daly City during New Year's Eve were very few, and according to Chief A. L. Hilton, 1940 was ushered in with fewer mishaps than in many previous years.

In keeping with the policy for safer streets, 25-mile signs have been posted in the residential section of Hillside boulevard.

Repairs Completed On Reservoir No. 2

Completion of repair work on the top of Reservoir No. 2, damaged by a recent storm, was announced this week by A. J. Bodien, water superintendent.

The new top, said Bodien, is strongly constructed and expected to withstand all future storms.

Build $2700 Pound

Work begins today on the construction of Daly City's new $2700 dog pound, according to City Engineer Julius F. Castelan.

Located on the hill below Water Reservoir No. 3, fronting Orange street, the new pound will contain ten dog stalls, with accomodations for about twenty dogs at one time. The building will also house the pound truck and will contain a room for an attendant, as well as a gas death chamber for the humane killing of unwanted animals.

The work will be done under the direction of Joseph Ragni, local contractor, and is expected to take approximately 45 days for completion.

Castelan also reported that work on the resurfacing of Brunswick street begins today, and will take approximately three weeks to complete.

Set CCC Quota For County at 35

The quota for San Mateo county CCC enrollments has been set at 35, CCC authorities announced today.

Any boy between the ages of 17 and 23 years, who is not registered in school or on probation or parole, is eligible for camp placement, they stated. Enlistments are for a period of six months.

Any youth interested should file application at once with the State Relief Administration office, 430 Peninsula avenue, San Mateo. In order to facilitate completion of applications, each boy should be accompanied by one of his parents or guardians and bring with him, if possible, documentary evidence of his birth date.

Boynton Resigns From Hall Committee

Bruce H. Boynton, WPA Recreation department head, has resigned from the committee which was to investigate the price of the old Vista Grande school tract, in connection with the Community Center movement.

Lack of the necessary time to serve on this committee, due to increased Recreation department activities, was the reason given by Boynton for his resignation.

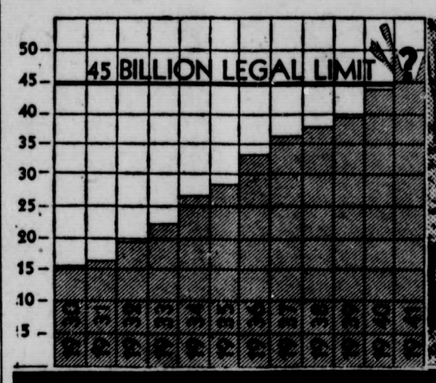
Other members of the committee include Mrs. F. H. Rickmann and Fred Hanel. No one has as yet been appointed to fill Boynton's place.

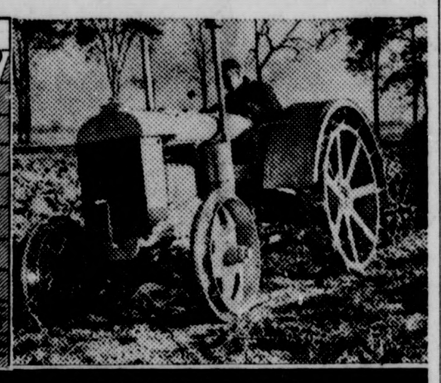
Judge Clay Metes Out Fines

Roy David Rasmussen, 511 Ashbury avenue, was fined $10 Friday by Judge Wade H. Clay on a charge of speeding. A similar charge cost Betty Boardman, Woodside, $5, and Robert Patterson, 519 Paris street, $2.50 suspended. Wesley Barling, 228 Craut street, was given a $1 suspended fine for going through a signal.

Failing to appear were Charles Francis Colledge, 734 Stanyan street, charged with reckless driving; Robert Joseph Harrigan, 20 Grafton avenue, speeding, and Robert Hawk, 315 Twelfth street, improper parking.

Congress Faces These Problems





DEBT LIMIT: Must be raised, or new taxes must be levied.

AGRICULTURE: Soil conservation, not crop control, is new plan.

DEFENSE: Seek 500 million boost; now costs 1,760 million.

COMMERCE: G. O. P. will seek to block renewal of trade act.

All eyes will focus on Washington today when the second session of the Seventy-sixth congress opened for what most senators and representatives hope will be a short term. Reason: It's a campaign year!

Public Invited To Craft Display

To ascertain which adult crafts will prove most popular in local WPA Recreation classes, Bruce H. Boynton, local department head, has invited the Tobias Craft Supply to put on a demonstration at the Recreation office, 101 Parkview avenue, during the afternoon and evening of January 15.

Included in the numerous crafts to be demonstrated will be Indian arts, marionette making, woodcraft, claycraft, leathercraft, metalcraft, corkcraft, beadcraft, block printing, finger printing, woodburning and Marlite work.

"This is an adult project," stated Boynton, "and we extend a cordial invitation to those who are interested to attend this exhibit. Groups will be formed into classes for many of these new crafts, which will be added to the present curriculum. These classes will offer a more diversified program for the choice of hobbies in handicrafts."

Announce Winners In Christmas Contest

Mr. and Mrs. Espie Stafford won first prize for the best Christmas decoration in Garden Village last week. Mr. and Mrs. George Nickson took second and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reeves Smith, third. Fourth place went to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davidson.

Local Couple Injured In Automobile Crash

Heavy rain was held responsible for a crash that injured Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Adami, 499 Evergreen street, on the Bayshore highway near Mills Field, Sunday. J. D. Keating, San Francisco, driver of the car in which they were riding, died at the San Francisco hospital as a result of injuries suffered in the crash.

Mrs. Adami suffered a fractured arm and leg. Adami was cut and bruised, with possible internal injuries.

Thieves Enter Theatre

Wrecked candy and cigarette machines, side doors forced open, and a hole large enough to admit a hand in the office door gave mute evidence of a burglary committed at the Daly City theatre sometime Monday morning. More than $200 in cash and goods was reported taken from the machines.

The side doors had been jimmied open after a metal strip between the double doors had been removed to permit the insertion of a tool. Both the cigarette and candy machines in the lobby were found gaping open, with all the money removed. The bottom of the cigarette machine, where extra cartons of cigarettes are kept, was found open and empty.

A square opening adjacent to the lock had been made in the door leading into the office of Manager William Smeltzer. Made by boring a series of holes with an inch-and-an-eighth auger, the opening permitted a hand to reach the lock on the inside of the door.

Smeltzer's desk drawers had been rifled and script and tickets littered the floor. The door to a storage closet, used for script, Ten-O-Win and admission tickets, had been opened by breaking the lock, but inventory must be taken to ascertain if any tickets were stolen. The safe apparently had not been tampered with.

After a thorough inspection by Police Chief A. L. Hilton, assisted by Officer George Hopman, it was apparent that gloves had been worn, due to a total lack of fingerprints on machines, desk or doors.

The robbery was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Felix Franklin at 8:10 a. m. when they came to clean the theater.

Said Chief Hilton: "Decidedly an amateur job."

DC Band At Game

Rain and wind did not deter the Daly City band, under the direction of George E. Brenner, from turning in a good performance at the Shrine East-West game, January 1.

Entering the stadium seventh in line, playing "Winning Colors," and led by Drum Major Tipton Banks and Drum Majorette Bobbie Bruce, the Daly City band later played "Hawkeye Glory" and "Invercargill."

One of the drills featured forty-six majorettes, marching abreast in front of the California Greys band. The entire stadium full of spectators recited the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, and George Stinson, the singing cop, sang "God Bless America."

Local Pedestrian Struck By Car

Possible fracture of ribs and arm, abrasions and contusions were suffered by W. C. Opal, 1078 Hanover street, Friday, 6:45 a. m. in an automobile accident at Mission and Crocker.

Opal was struck by a car driven by J. L. Dykeman, 198 Wellington avenue. He was taken to the Villa Sanitarium for first aid and later transferred to the Marine hospital.

APPOINT NASH DEALER FOR DALY CITY

Peter Venturino Named To Serve This Area

The appointment of Peter Venturino as Nash dealer for Daly City, at 5975 Mission street, was announced here today by E. B. Zane, general manager of Pacific Nash Motor company, Northen California distributor for Nash. Venturino will maintain full service facilities for Nash owners in this area.

The company will handle the full line of Nash models, 18 in all, in three series—the Nash LaFayette, Nash Ambassador Six and Nash Ambassador Eight—said Venturino.

With a long background in the automobile business and a very successful operation in Daly City for a number of years, Venturino is ably equipped to take care of all the demands of exacting motorists in service and sales.

The new 1940 Nash cars, because of their many new developments, Venturino declared, are destined to play an important part in reviving for thousands of Americans the romance of the open road. Packed with what he called "adventure features," the new cars are far more fun to drive, as well as more beautiful to look at, he said.

He cited as an outstanding example of the 1940 advancements, Nash's new Arrow-Flight ride, which is said to be the smoothest and most comfortable yet built into a motor car. The ride is the result of a method of springing that is entirely new to American motor cars.

Adding to the driving thrills this new springing brings, Venturino said, is a new steering arrangement that was designed to give the motorist relaxed control of his car at all times. The new Nashes hold their courses easily and surely on the roughest roads, and still may be U-turned simply on a street of only average width and parked in limited spaces without effort, he stated.

Automobile Gadget

Martin M. Collins of Danbury, Conn., has patented an emergency automobile horn sounder that blows the horn automatically when the brakes are suddenly applied.

Flowing curves form the beauty motif of this age, say beauty scouts for Universal Pictures. Here's one of their newest beauty "finds"— Peggy Moran—perched atop a new 1940 Nash, the automobile beauty chosen for 1940 Universal Pictures because it so well expresses today's beauty theme.

Plan Reopening Of Mission Trails

Plans for the reopening of the beautiful Mission Trails building on Treasure Island for the 1940 Exposition will be discussed during the eighth annual convention of the California Mission Trails association in Santa Cruz, January 12 and 13.

Howard M. Horrworth, manager of the association, said requests have been received for the building but it has not been sold as recently reported. One bid was made by Doctor Alexander C. Roberts, president of the San Francisco State Teachers college, who said he was anxious to obtain the entire structure for the campus of the new school.

The governing body, the Mission Trails Exposition commission, who will plan for next year's participation in the Exposition, represents seven central coast counties maintaining the Mission Trails building.

Announcing a new

Nash Dealer to Serve Daly City

Today, an outstanding new dealer in town joins with us . . . to present to you the new 1940 Nash cars.

Come and see them. But—not even the lively, power-packed lines can give you the "feel" of the 1940 Nash. You've got to get in and go.

There's a new kind of engine up in front that acts like a thoroughbred stinging under the spur. There's a wheel in your hand for Arrow-Straight steering; gears at your fingertips for a quick getaway.

There's a dial you turn (the Nash automatic Weather Eye), and cold weather, smoky air, dust, dirt, insects, are banished from motoring forever.

Just press that throttle a little harder—and you'll burst into a new range of flying performance, the new Fourth Speed Forward. But there's no end to the magic under your toe. Give 'er the gun—and that black beetle of a car ahead looms up and fades to a pinpoint behind, as you zoom away on the unbeatable Overtake!

And you needn't slow down, when you hit the road that used to torture your old car. You glide over the ruts and bumps without a quiver or squeal in the new Nash Arrow-Flight Ride!

Then listen—to silence. Mile after mile so free of road noise and wind whistle that you seem to be floating on a cloud.

Or do a little trick with the rear seat, and—presto!—a double bed is ready for those weekends in the woods. (And remember, even the lowest price Nash has an engine that is economy champion in its class! †)

. . . Yes—you can buy a new Nash on the basis that it gives you more horsepower, more room, more car weight—for your money. Yet the 1940 Nash sells at new low prices.

Come on down! We guarantee to make you forget any car you ever owned!

Death Claims Katherine Mary Gilbers

Mrs. Katherine Mary Gilbers, 199 Whittier street, succumbed at her home Monday evening. A native of St. Louis, Missouri, she is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Annabel M. Cree.

Funeral services will be conducted from the W. C. Lasswell and company chapel, with interment in Olivet Memorial park.

Hit-Run Driver Held After Crash

Two drivers were slightly injured and one arrested on drunk driving and misdemeanor hit-run charges last week in a crash on Junipero Serra boulevard near here.

The highway patrol reported that cars of Robert Le Fevre, 32, 99 Parkview avenue, and Robert E. Lehtinen, Burlingame garage man, collided when the northbound Le Fevre car went to the wrong side of the road and hit the Lehtinen car.

Following the crash, the Le Fevre car struck an embankment and Le Fevre fled the scene, running through a field and coming out on El Camino Real near the Colma cemeteries, the patrol said. There he attempted to hitch hike to Daly City, was picked up by a special deputy, then turned over in turn to Daly City police and the highway patrol.

Le Fevre was fined $100 by Judge Wade H. Clay, half of which was suspended on condition that he paid for the damage done to Lehtinen's car.

Versailles in Germany

On a lonely island in the Chiemsee in Germany stands one of the most amazing palaces in Europe—an almost identical reproduction of the chateau of Louis XIV at Versailles. The copy was built at tremendous expense by Ludwig II, the "mad king" of Bavaria, who cherished a great admiration for the French king and his famous country estate.

Katherine Cornell Plays at Curran In Hilarious "No Time for Comedy"

For Judicial Fete

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is shown in the gown she will wear tomorrow at the annual White House reception for members of the Supreme court. The gown is a delicate shell pink with silver lame, with its skirt flowing into yards of fullness at the hem, from a slender waist.

Sequin-Trimmed

Sequins flash at you from the most unexpected places this season, the latest idea being to trim the black jersey frock in glittering bands done in white and gold sequins as you see pictured. The gown has the new long sleeves, a high neck and open back that buttons only at neckline and waistline. These new "coverup" fashions are the smartest of the season. Note that the fullness is brought to the front in the skirt.

Francis Lederer Appears as Husband Of Famous Actress

After twenty-four weeks in New York, Katherine Cornell in "No Time For Comedy" comes to the Curan theater for two weeks, opening Monday evening, January 1. The celebrated actress-manager and her stellar cast are now on a transcontinental tour which by spring will have carried them into forty-four cities of twenty-six states, covering 14,000 miles.

In spite of its title, S. N. Behrman's latest play is a comedy, one of the smartest ever to come from his agile pen. It was produced by Miss Cornell in association with the five distinguished dramatists of The Playwrights' company—Maxwell Anderson, Behrman, Elmer Rice, Robert E. Sherwood, and the late Sidney Howard.

Playing comedy for the first time since she became a star, Miss Cornell is seen as the wife of a fashionable and philandering playwright. Francis Lederer returned from a profitable exile in Hollywood to appear opposite Miss Cornell as her wandering husband. Margalo Gillmore, who has appeared previously with Miss Cornell in "The Green Hat," "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," and "Flowers of the Forest," is cast as the object of the playwright's roving affection.

Joe Sarto Is Host At Annual Banquet

Joe Sarto, proprietor of Villa Sanitarium and local civic figure, was host at a banquet and party, Thursday evening of last week, at Uncle Tom's Cabin, San Bruno.

Nearly 200 guests attended the annual affair held in honor of the local police department and the state highway patrol.

TIPS FOR HOUSEWIFE

Lamp shades of painted tin combine well with pottery bases.

Before adding sugar to cake mixture always sift through a fine strainer.

For iced coffee you should be a little more generous with your coffee measure.

Mend leaks in gas or water pipes by winding long strips of cloth dipped in hot paraffin.

Left-over sandwiches need not be discarded. Brush with melted butter and saute to a golden brown on each side.

One tablespoon of cooked oatmeal thoroughly beaten into the mixture for pumpkin pie saves one egg and cannot be detected.

Chill plates, dishes and glasses in which cold foods and drinks are to be served. The food and drink will stay cold much longer.

To remove ink from fingers, dip fingers and an unburned sulphur match in water. Rub the match over the ink spot until it vanishes.

When buying canned goods for emergency shelf, immediately write on the label the month, date, year and price. This enables one to use the older things first and so keep your stock fresh.

Movie Fan

On a visit to the penal colony on Devil's island, French Guiana, Cameraman Pierre-Andre Martineau discovered the world's most enthusiastic movie fan. He was a convict whose body bore tattooed portraits of Garbo, Marlene Dietrich, Mary Pickford and other film stars. His gallery is now complete; he has no more room for pictures.

History of Daly City Fire Department

(Editor's Note: This is the thirteenth installment of an informal history of the Daly City Fire department, dedicated to "those who serve—not for personal gain—but for the welfare of all."

Through the cooperation of William J. C. Goldkuhl, E. W. Goldkuhl sr., and Edward W. Goldkuhl jr., authors, and the Daly City Record this interesting story is made available to the general public.)

During the year 1925, the Veteran Firemen's association of the Daly City Fire department was started. Fritz Hansen had much to do with the organization of this body and became its first president. Many of the companies made donations to the association in order to help its start financially.

According to the minutes of August 11, 1926, the people of Daly City demanded that the fire insurance rates be reduced. This was justified because of the low loss of property through fire, and the incident spoke well both of the fire fighting efforts of the volunteer organization and as one of the many examples of neighborly spirit that prevailed in the fire department. During this same month, a member of Company Number 2 became sick, and because his health demanded a change of climate, the members of the fire department undertook to raffle off a Ford car to raise the funds necessary to send him away.

On November 10, 1926, Chief Twesten issued invitations to the house warming party at the new and only concrete firehouse (that of Company Number 2) on Vista between Miriam and San Diego streets.

The board of fire commissioners in 1926 was comprised of G. Schenck of Company Number 1; F. Michelsen, Company No. 2; A. J. Green, Company No. 3; G. R. Augustien, Company Number 4; C. F. Rodenberger, Company Number 5; and H. W. A. Rickman, fire marshal. By a vote of this commission, the membership in each company was limited to fifteen members.

On February 11, 1927, the Veteran Firemens association celebrated its first anniversary. Listed among its many members were those who had seen their fire department come a long way in those last twenty years. Among the names were those of Jim Callan, W. J. C. Goldkuhl, H. H. Smith, J. Twesten, G. Schenck, E. Ford, G. Savage, H. Secor, L. Shaw, F. Michelsen, H. Elmers, A. Bodien, B. Hilton, C. Reinhart, J. Kennedy, H. Sundermann and many, many others. Firemen all, pioneers and builders, donors of their Sundays and holidays, responsive to calls in the middle of the nights—truly they served for the general welfare of all and what they loved, their fire department.

In 1928 A. P. Chesney was appointed assistant chief of Number 2 district. Company Number 4 completed the building of a new fire engine at the cost of $746.52. J. Cosbie was elected captain of Company Number 5. During this year also, closer contact was maintained with the San Mateo Associated firemen when members of the various Daly City companies attended its meetings. This contact was very beneficial to the department as the fire fighting ideas of an entire county were brought back to the Daly City Fire department.

Coleman Window Has Clever Display

One of the most appealing and clever Christmas displays that The Record missed on its pre-Christmas ramble around town looking for outstanding decorations is Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman's front windows. While it is an indoor display, it can be seen from the sidewalk and portays a popular phase of Americana. It presents a host of cartoon "personalities."

Snow White, with her usual charm and demureness, presides over the scene. Doc surveys Crocker avenue through the window with his wise and benevolent air, and Sneezey looks as if he were halted mid-way in a sneeze.

Dopey, self-satisfied because he doesn't know any better, stands next to Happy, who appears as cheerful as ever. Sleepy, as usual, is stifling a yawn, and Bashful is blushing from the neck up. Even Grumpy has lost some of his perpetual scowl and looks a trifle gay in this happy aggregation.

Pinocchio, the little boy whose nose grew longer every time he told a fib, stands high in the window, and the thriftless Grasshopper, who danced around all summer singing "The World Owes Me a Living," stands immaculately attired, no doubt before Winter came and evil times befell him.

Dagwood Bumstead's little boy, Baby Dumpling, is proud to be in such famous company and is looking for Daisey Mae, who is down lower in the window. Mickey Mouse and his neighbor, Clara Cow, are very much in evidence and the internationally famous flower fancier, Ferdinand the Bull, to judge from the ecstatic look upon his face, has just smelt his favorite posey.

Porky, the lazy one of the Three Little Pigs, is looking irresponsible among dozens of other little dolls and less famous characters. The entire scene is lighted by colored lights.

Fireproof Fabrics At Home

Many wintertime fires which start when window curtains, hangings, and fabric decorations catch fire might be prevented by a simple method of fireproofing cotton and other cellulose fiber fabrics at home.

This is announced by Woodbridge Metcalf, specialist in the University of California Agricultural Extension service.

To fireproof such materials, says Metcalf, all that is needed is to make a solution of seven ounces of borax, three ounces of boric acid, and two quarts of hot water. Larger amounts may be prepared if the proportions are maintained. The fabrics to be treated should then be soaked thoroughly in the solution, wrung out, and allowed to dry. Draperies and other bulky materials might be spread on a frame and sprayed with an ordinary garden spray gun.

Metcalf reports that the borate solution is not acid and will not injure the fabrics. It has an added advantage in that it protects curtains and draperies for a considerable period from the effects of acidic sulfur gas usually present in homes heated with coal or illuminating gas.

Wool and silk fabrics, he says, do not ignite easily or burn rapidly. They do not require fireproofing.

Self-Control

Men and women are not like leaves, blown about by every wind, or like clay, receiving and retaining whatever impress is made upon them. They have an inward force enabling them to control, to a large extent, the influences that bear upon them—to welcome some, to resist others, and not only passively to receive, but actively to digest and assimilate that which they receive, so that it becomes a very part of themselves.

Bolero and Princess Types Compete for Style Prestige

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

NO MATTER the elegance of fabric, no matter the color glory of the material, no matter the perfection of detail, no matter whether it cost a plenty or less if your dress or your coat or your suit be not figure flattering then all is lost insofar as allure or smart appearance is concerned. Yes, indeed, we are hearing a lot these days about "lines" and "hips," wasp waistlines and the new corseted silhouettes.

From the figure-flattering standpoint there are two types that stand out definitely in the mode this season, namely the bolero costume and the form-fitting dresses and coats that are cut a la princess. The difference between the two is that the dress or suit with a bolero possesses the magic to make figures that are not a hundred per cent perfect look up to par, while to wear a princess successfully one really must have a good figure.

If in doubt, there is no safer, saner choice than a bolero ensemble. To define the bolero theme is a big order, for it expresses itself in infinite moods ranging from tailored types made of utilitarian wools to afternoon types starred with sequins or more or less embroidered even unto whimsical affairs that are all aglitter with jeweled embroidery, ostrich trim, filmy lace that tones to formal evening wear.

Most practical is the tailored bolero dress or suit made of a sheer wool weave or of a silk-and-rayon crepe, or of the now-so-smart faille or bengaline. Such a dress-with-bolero or skirt and bolero will prove the better part of a wardrobe within itself. You can wear different blouses and change the entire appearance of your costume from day to day. The suit may be simply tailored or the bolero can be handsomely all-over braided.

At the smartest places you see bolero costumes similar to the model pictured to the left in the group. Sheer wool or silk crepe in a chosen pastel tone, a skirt rippling to a wide swirling hemline, a blouse that looks like a froth of tinted lace, a bolero that bespeaks youth in its every line thus the story of this charming costume is told. The lace blouse worn with this bolero twosome reminds us that the foreword coming from fashion headquarters is that the dainty lace-trimmed or all-of-lace blouse is scheduled to reach a new high in fashion next spring.

Princess coats and dresses are all the style this winter. In coats the classic double-breasted form-fitting princess type of wool coating or richly colorful tweed is an acknowledged favorite. As to the princess dress, style-alert debutantes and girls of high school age have fallen in love with the simple classic such as is centered in the illustration. Describing this model, it is a black

Scouts Add Papers To Local Library

More than 25 different scout papers from all parts of the world are now available to local readers at the Daly City public library, according to Joseph Straughan, scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop No. 141.

Attractively bound in different-sized folios and properly indexed, the files are the result of work done by boys of the troop under the direction of their Exchange editor, Donald Laston, Oakland, who formerly lived at 112 Santa Barbara avenue. The Exchange department each month sends copies of the "Deep Purple," the troop's official publication, to many United States and foreign troops in exchange for other papers.

Also placed on file in the library last month, according to Straughan, was a complete yearbook containing all twelve 1939 copies of the "Deep Purple," attractively bound by boys of the troop.

Alice Faye Plays In New Film At Local Theatre

A great human drama of today that will stir all your happiest memories of 1001 thrilling yesterdays is Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Hollywood Cavalcade," which opens tomorrow at the Daly City theatre, starring Alice Faye and Don Ameche and photogaphed in glorious Technicolor.

The romance of Hollywood from bathing beauties to world premieres staged anew, this magnificent picture tells in thrilling and highly entertaining fashion the story of Mike, a "prop" boy consumed with the desire to make pictures, and Molly, who wanted only to be loved by Moke, but who was swept along to greatness on the screen.

Those memorable Mack Sennett bathing beauties stroll again beside Castle Rock on Santa Monica beach, but this time lovely Alice Faye is one of their number. Buster Keaton, Ben Turpin, Chester Conklin and those inimitable Keystone Cops cavort again in slapstick, custard-pie comedy. Al Jolson sings again "Kol Nidre," the song with which he electrified the world in "The Jazz Singer," the first talking picture ever made.

Companion feature on the new bill is "The Man They Could Not Hang," starring Boris Karloff.

Beginning tonight, the Daly City theatre will inaugurate Sweetheart Beautyware gifts, free to feminine patrons. A complete set is now on display in the foyer of the theatre.

Bolero and Princess Types Complete

bengaline coat dress, suitable to wear from morn to night. The form-fitting princess lines are cut with purpose to achieve the chic skirt fullness that develops a wide flaring hemline. The dress is further styled with sailor collar and a row of gold buttons at the front closing.

If you are young, slim, svelte and alertly fashion-conscious, tie a ribbon in your hair and wear a form-fitting princess dress like the one pictured to the right in the group. Buttons down the front make this model do the most for the typical junior figure. The gored, hemmed skirt flares gaily. And the four little embroidered and edged in val-type cotton lace pockets!

Impulses Influence Life

It is much easier to act firmly and bravely under a strong impulse than it is to restrain an impulse when called upon to do so. Of all the battles of life there is not one that requires so much real courage as that silent battle with self, which every dutiful person finds it frequently necessary to wage.
